

Cohen & Cohen Mock Trial Competition

The best and brightest of GW Law competed in the fourth annual Cohen & Cohen Mock Trial competition on Nov. 9. A record-setting number of teams entered the competition, which was judged by Ricardo Urbina from the United States District Court.

The competition is sponsored by Washington personal injury firm Cohen & Cohen, managed by associated professorial lecturer Wayne Cohen and his wife, Jill.

“This is a great opportunity for the students to compete and better their trial skills,” Cohen says. The firm’s $25,000 sponsorship will continue through the 2007 competition.

Professorial lecturer Wayne Cohen, sponsor of the Cohen & Cohen Mock Trial Competition.